

FRED HARTIN IS CAPTURED IN NEW YORK

DESPERATE EX-CONVICT WHO KILLED COMPANION, IS TAK-EN AFTER MONTHS'
SEARCH.

SHERIFF OFF FOR EAST

Sheriff Whipple and Chief Gillman of Evanville Leave Tonight to Return at Once With Prisoner.

Fred Hartin, ex-convict and desperate criminal, wanted for the murder of H. A. Krause, another ex-convict, last fall, in a desolate river canyon short way below York mark, has been arrested in Lacona, New York. Sheriff
"Bob" Whipple and Chief of Police Fred Gillman of Evanville, leave tonight for the east to take the prisoner back to Rock county justice.

Gets Extrajudicial Papers.
District Attorney Stanley G. Dun-widde was at Madison this afternoon securing extrajudicial papers. As he steps off the train tonight he will hand them to Whipple, who will board the same train for Chicago, and catch a fast passenger out of there tonight.
Hartin refuses to leave New York state, the sheriff has instructions to go to Albany and secure extrajudicial papers from Governor Whitman.

It is certain that the prisoner is Hartin. To make doubly sure and not bring back the wrong man, the district attorney delegated Gillman as a deputy to accompany the sheriff.
Hartin, who is personally known to Gillman, has been in the city and has been working on the case.

Followed Case for Months.
Both the policeman and the state's attorney, since the whole blood murder and with the determination that Hartin was the perpetrator, have been constantly at work in hopes of locating him. Their relentless search appears to have been rewarded.

They worked from every angle known to the art of catching crooks which came up in the case. It was learned that Hartin, while in prison, had become quite efficient as a repair man and mechanic of knitting machinery. Immediately a list of every knitting factory and knitting machine factory in the United States was secured and a circular letter with the fugitive's description in detail was sent to each.

It was further learned that Hartin has an aunt, a Mrs. Sherman, living at Lacona and that the little hamlet of 450 population has a large knitting industry. Plans for a special attention were given to these facts.

All circles were sent out by the Bellevue police department and late last night a telegram from Council Bluffs advised that Hartin had been received to the effect that he had the wanted man in custody.

Dunwidde was suspicious, as only three weeks ago the different friends of the outlaw had received postcards from Genoa, Italy, signed by Hartin and mailed either on the second or fourth of May. The prisoner's attorney had been taken initial action with the state department at Washington for his extradition back to the States.

A telegram was sent to Lacona for further verification of the man under arrest. A reply assured that the prisoner was the one wanted.

To Take No Chances.
Sheriff Whipple this afternoon packed leg-ions along with handcuffs in his bag. The district attorney advised this and further warned him to keep watch of the minutest detail upon Hartin as he is desperate as a tiger at bay and would, according to Dunwidde, kill him if he saw the slightest chance to get away.

Gillman knows his man, however, and it can be assured that he will take no chances of Hartin getting the better of him. Hartin will be confined in the Green county jail at Monroe.

Both men know his previous record. Some years ago he and a companion entered the home of a reclusive woman and killed her. They were sent to prison for a term of years.
Whipple had the old man's bare feet with the old man's bare feet with the old man's bare feet.

To learn the hiding place of alleged secreted gold. All they saw was a dollar and a nickel. They were caught and placed in the Green county jail at Monroe.

Would Kill Sheriff.
Pointing finger one day, Hartin ordered a toilet and securing the reserved plunger, bent it around his wrist and came from the room in a cramped position, called for the sheriff. The latter came and as he bent forward to raise Hartin's head, as he stood with one hand clutching his crotch and the other behind his back, Hartin suddenly straightened and swinging the heavy iron plunger from behind his back and over his head, he brought it down with all the force of the shoulder of the sheriff, who fell unconscious.

Lifting the body, the desperado carried it to the railing of the platform on the cell tier and lifting his head with his head, he hurled it with all force to the stone floor, fifteen feet below. Still not satisfied, he climbed to the railing and deliberately jumped on the railing from the platform.
The eye, he left the jail, but not before he had killed the sheriff's wife.

He was caught at East Madison, and the only remark made was "I only wish to kill I had killed the sheriff."

Victim Fellow Convict.
Hartin was released from Waupun last fall. While there he met a young Russian, the son of a wealthy land family, a party named Krause, and he had a party under the alias of A. Krause, to shield his family from his disgrace. Hartin was released from prison several weeks before Krause, but he returned to Krause and lived in Krause's home and later the desolate cement shack several miles upriver.

Krause was shot five times, and from the interior of the building it was evident that he had put up a desperate resistance and fight for his life. He had jammed the door against Hartin and in the panels could be seen where Hartin had fired through the door and wounded Krause. The body of Krause was found in the room and Hartin, entering, sent a bullet crashing into his forehead and killing him. Two hundred dollars in

U. S. MEDICAL UNITS IN CHARGE OF SIX HOSPITALS AT FRONT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

British Headquarters in France, by a Correspondent of Associated Press, June 22.—With so little ceremony as to escape publicity all but official attention, American doctors, nurses, and enlisted men have within the last fortnight taken over six of the British general field hospitals, releasing the English staffs for duty near their front. American surgeons have been tendering valiant aid in the foremost casualty training station during the battle of Messines. This has been the quickest of the aid the United States has given the British army in France.

The British selected their hospital sites with great care and have developed them with a completeness that has come from nearly three years' field experience. Some of the general hospitals are made up of tented ward accommodations for forty to sixty men each. Others are constructed of a series of huts. The operations men to lack nothing in the way of modern surgical equipment. Originally planned for 140 beds, the general hospitals have been practically all enlarged to 1,400 beds, and during crisis can accommodate 2,000 patients.

The units which have taken over the various hospitals were organized by the American Red Cross as "United States State Hospitals," and with the decision of the British command, the units have been turned over to the regular army for service as required. Each unit has brought along directors who were surgeons in general hospitals, but now take command as majors in the United States reserves. The sub-members of the staff are made up of regular army surgeons and doctors commissioned from civil life.

The nurses are all graduates of well known training schools and will probably be supported soon by volunteers.
The non-commissioned orderlies and privates were possibly all taken from civil life.

The first of the American units to reach France was known as United States state hospital No. 5, organized in Cleveland. Their units have taken over British general hospital
No. 9, "somewhere in France."

United States state hospital No. 5, organized at Harvard University, has
No. 11. The United States state hospital No. 2, from the Presbyterian Hospital in New York, has taken over British general hospital No. 10, organized in Philadelphia. The United
nized in St. Louis, has taken over British general hospital No. 12. The United States state hospital No. 19, organized in Philadelphia, largely in the University of Pennsylvania, has
No. 16. United States state hospital No. 13, organized in Chicago, has taken over British general hospital No. 18. All of course, being "somewhere in France."

Each American hospital staff has also organized a medical unit for service in the clearing station just south of the firing line for emergency work during the first day of great battles.
The American hospitals present an impressing contrast to the British hospitals from England, Scotland, Ireland, Australia, New Zealand and Portugal. Steps will be taken soon to bring the various units up to the standard required for large hospitals.

American doctors and nurses have already acquired the sea habit, which they enjoy every day. The success-

ALLIES READY FOR BLOW TO FREE SERBS

(1) Allied base in Greece; (2) French troops guard Thessalian harvests; (3) French troops guard Athens; (4) where allied line is being strengthened at expense of line further east.

All signs point to a big allied offensive in the Balkans. The purpose of General Sarrail apparently is to free the Serbs, and to this end the line to the south of Bulgaria has been weakened to add strength to the line in Serbia and eastern Albania. At Athens, Venizelos, aided by allied troops, holds sway. He has long favored the entrance of Greece into the war against Germany.

OTHER WOMAN KILLS WIFE IN WAUKESHA TRIANGLE OF LOVE

Waukesha, Wis., June 22.—Mrs.
David Robert's wife of David Robert, former state veterinarian, was shot and instantly killed at the home of Miss Vasego Mills, 416 West Park avenue, by Miss Grace Lusk, a local teacher. Miss Lusk then shot herself in the right side and was taken to the municipal hospital.
Miss Lusk's home is at Mosinee, Wis.
It is rumored that Mrs. Robert accused Miss Lusk of having been unduly intimate with her husband. Miss Lusk had been teaching school at Waukesha for six years.

Miss Grace Lusk was still conscious in the hospital today and it was predicted that she would recover. Owing to her highly nervous condition, bordering on hysteria, no attempt was made to operate on her closely.

The two bullets which she fired into her left breast had not been removed, but are believed to have lodged in her lung. Her father, Dr. A.
Lusk of Mosinee, Wisconsin, arrived today and telegraphed former Governor Francis E. McGovern of Milwaukee to come to Waukesha to attend to his daughter's legal interests.

Dr. David Robert, husband of the slain woman and alleged base of the triangle, still professed himself a victim of the shooting. Ample evidence on the subject, however, is said to have been shed by the large collection of letters written or received by Miss Lusk. They have been sent to the surface that Miss Lusk resented Dr. Robert's alleged failure to make a clean breast of the affair to his wife and break the triangle.

The funeral of Mrs. Robert will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Robert home. Burial will be made at Prairie Home cemetery.

AMERICAN STEAMER SANK A SUBMARINE CAPTAIN BELIEVES

An American Atlantic port June 22.—Captain Fessie Foster of the steamer Norlina, said today that he believed the Norlina had sunk a U-boat on June 4, when two days out from Liverpool, England, en route to an Atlantic port. Beyond this statement, the captain would not vouchsafe any further information.

Report Lives Lost.
London, June 22.—The sinking of Norwegian steamer Cederic of 1128 tons is reported in a dispatch from Copenhagen which credits the announcement to the Norwegian foreign office. Captain and twelve men are said to be missing.

Danish Ship Sunk.
New York, June 22.—The Danish steamship Orion of 1848 tons gross register, was sunk by a German submarine June 4 in the North Sea, according to officers of a Dutch ship which arrived here today. The officers said they picked up the crew at sea. No lives were lost.

Deny Raider Captured.
Washington, June 22.—Reports of a British steamer arriving at Aden on the coast port with prisoners from a German raider, sunk or captured at sea, were declared by navy department officials today to be without foundation.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Janesville Investment company will be held at the office of the Rock County National bank, July 2d, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. F. H. Jackman, Secretary.

Miss Lucile Hope, Mr. and Mrs.
William Hope of Evansville and Mrs.
Macy M. Klie of Curtiss, Wis., were Janesville callers today.

MARINE CORPS HERO

First Lieutenant Ernest C. Williams, U. S. Marine corps, has just been awarded the Medal of Honor for extraordinary heroism in the face of the enemy at San Francisco de Macoris, Dominican Republic, Nov. 29, 1916. The report shows him in the face of a fire from about forty rifles, hurled himself against the doors just as they were being closed, was first inside, and without the loss of a single man, but with eight of his original detachment of twelve men wounded, succeeded in capturing the fort.

CITY TAKES SPURT IN RED CROSS DRIVE

TEAMS REPORT $2,000 COLLECTED AND PLEDGED IN PAST TWENTY-FOUR HOURS.

TODAY'S TOTAL $6,000

With Another Day Remaining Chances Are Bright That City's Full Quota of Funds Will Be Raised.

Janesville took a spurt today in the drive to collect the full allotment of $14,000 of the $100,000,000 Red Cross war fund, when the teams engaged in soliciting business men and citizens reported that a total of some $2,000 had been subscribed or pledged since yesterday. There were several teams which had not reported up to two o'clock, so that the result of the last twenty-four hours canvass may be estimated to top the three thousand dollar mark. The total as it stood today at Red Cross headquarters at the Commercial club was over $6,000.
With $8,000 still to be raised, the teams engaged in the campaign are planning to redouble their efforts, and the windup tomorrow promises to be a very busy affair. With the women volunteers assisting their canvass beginning this morning, prospects are bright, according to the leaders, that the city's quota will be subscribed in less than a week. A number of large subscriptions will be recorded before the campaign closes.

Of the teams, the one headed by M. O. Motat has been far the most successful, reporting a total of more than $1,500. Joseph M. Connors' team has secured a total of $692. The competition among the teams is vigorous and the last day of soliciting will be more strenuous than any of the previous ones.

A report from the Janesville Machine company turned in at noon today showed that $114 had been subscribed by the employees of the company. The company returns will be in by tomorrow.

In connection with the Red Cross campaign, a special announcement made of the address tonight at the First Congregational church by Dr.
David Beaton of Chicago, formerly of this city, on the subject of "The importance of the entrance of the United States into the World War." This lecture is Dr. Beaton's contribution to the Red Cross work. Hundreds of his friends and admirers in Janesville will grasp this opportunity to hear a scholarly treatment of this vital topic. Dr. Beaton has been a student of both American and European politics and history, and is especially qualified to discuss and analyze the importance of America's part in the struggle. The lecture will begin promptly at eight o'clock.

THREE TRADES FAIR TO ANSWER THE CALL

Chicago, June 22.—Recruiting of butcher, baker, teamster and dressmakers for the quartermaster's service in the central department has been a practical failure, it was admitted today. Men in these trades are said to be slow to leave lucrative positions for army pay.

CUDAHY RETURNS TO WORK FREEING SONS

Chicago, June 22.—Patrick Cudahy, the packer, who recently announced his retirement from business in favor of his son, is back in the harness again, it was learned today. One son has become a lieutenant in the regular army and another has joined an officers' training camp. There is nothing left for the father to do but to come out of retirement to release them for duty to their own country.

SINN FEIN RIOTS ARE RENEWED IN DUBLIN

Dublin, June 22.—The Sinn Fein rioters, who have held several demonstrations since the release of persons arrested at the time of the uprising last year, brought about further disorders today. Some 500 of them, carrying long poles, went to parade in gardens of former soldiers over which union jacks were flying. Windows were smashed and police who came up were stoned. Eight men and five women were arrested.

BEAT GERMANY BY CREDIT TO WEAK

Kansas City, June 22.—Extension of credit to small and weak countries is one of the most powerful influences that the United States and her allies may develop against Germany and Austria, said Dr. Edward E. Pratt, chief of the federal bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, in address before the National Association of Credit Men in convention here.

If you don't understand what the Red Cross and America needs of $100,000,000 in this great crisis, take these facts, digest them, and say how much you are going to give:
Forty millions of men with the colors.
Six to seven millions of men in the prison camps.
Four hundred thousand cases of tuberculosis among the soldiers in France.
One hundred and twelve thousand British killed, wounded and missing in the month of May.
As in any other country, our government will pay the wages for hospital nursing and medical units after they have been accepted into service.
The entire organization and equipment, however, must be paid by the donors.
Each unit costs about $30,000.
The money furnished to the Red Cross through membership fees and normal contributions is hardly sufficient for the domestic demands.
In addition to what we must do for our own armies it is proposed to help suffering and dying people in France, Belgium, Russia, Poland and Armenia.
After two and one-half years of war they are all in desperate need of assistance.
In addition, it will be necessary to make some provision for the recreation and rest of our own men while in France.
The Red Cross is the only recognized agency which may help to care for the wounded of the army and the nations that are fighting our battles. After that duty it devolves upon this nation to go about the most important victim of the war, the helpless, remembering our duty, remembering the fate of Belgium and Poland, with no hope for the future, and to recognize those people and to give them hope that liberty is worth any price.
"The Germans," said Herbert C.
Hoover, had erected battering rams, had destroyed and burned villages, had leveled everything to the ground, had gathered up all the agricultural implements on open squares and burned them, had taken all the animals and had removed all the mal-portion of the population between the ages of 18 and 65 years. Even the fruit trees have been destroyed. The cost of civilization runs into figures which should startle all decent, Americans, and perhaps Americans.
If men are giving their lives you can give your dollars.

PLAN PRICE INQUIRIES

Investigation of Coal, Steel and Cop-ate Interstate Commerce Committee.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]
Washington, June 22.—Administration supporters of the food bill rearranged their battle line today to make sure the senate does not kill the first bill on the ground that it should the first or production bill with its clause against food hoarding be finally enacted, while the senate debates the second bill. It might be contended that the provisions of the first bill are sufficient.
The house leaders today decided to take the first bill en masse in its present stage and thus force the senate to enact all the program before any of it gets to the critical stage of the conference between the two houses.
The principal subjects of contention in the first bill until after passage of the second by both houses, they expected to get most of the administration program on the statute books.
Prohibition proposals and pending amendments to eliminate government licensing of food dealers, were the principal subjects of contention in the house today on the administration's food control bill. Speakers were limited to five minutes.
Senator Reed of Missouri is ready to take the floor in the senate for a long speech in opposition to the bill.
To Conduct Price Inquiry?
Inquiry into production prices and transportation of coal, steel, copper and other basic materials over which government supervision may be proposed during the war, was decided upon today by the senate interstate commerce committee. Coal will be the first subject taken up next Tuesday.

ROSA LOSES FIGHT ON EIGHT HOUR LAW

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE] Madison, Wis., June 22.—The assembly voted 38 to 32 today to recognize the eight hour principle in public employment, even though the provisions of the bill were limited to cities of the first and second class. The measure was supported by Assemblyman Charles D.
Rosa of Beloit. It was opposed by Assemblyman Vincent of Kenosha county.
The Baxter bill relating to an eight hour day was applicable only to the city of Milwaukee and to the county of Milwaukee and Douglas upon the adoption by the board of supervisors.
It further provided that in case of overtime work, time and a half pay should be allowed.
Speaking of the bill Assemblyman Donnelly of the city of Milwaukee was in favor of the measure and he believed the county of Milwaukee would also adopt the provisions of the bill. The measure was then passed by a vote of 38 to 32.

After a short debate the senate non-committed in the bill extending the scope of the state plumbing law in Wisconsin. The measure passed the assembly by a large vote, but the senate reported an almost unanimous vote of opposition.

The Arnold resolution to amend the constitution so as to provide home rule for cities failed in the house by a vote of 41 yeas to 21 nays. It resulted from a vote to pass a constitutional amendment. Assemblyman Kent of Milwaukee immediately moved a reconsideration and the resolution will come up again on Friday.

among the 12,000 men quartered there.

P. Davidson, national chairman of the Red Cross, wired from Washington as follows: "The country throat with a razor and shooting himself in the head in an adjoining room where he was sleeping with his children. Barrett was a Spanish war veteran.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Robert Lane and Miss Winifred Wilson Practically Uninjured When Car They Were in Turned Turtle.

What was probably one of the most remarkable escapes from serious injury in an auto accident occurred Thursday afternoon, some two miles out of the city on the Milton road, when the large eight-cylinder touring car driven by Robert Lane and Miss Winifred Wilson, turned turtle and rolled over once, throwing Miss Winifred Wilson, a sister of Mrs. Floyd Benson, who is visiting her from Montana, out of the car and plunging young Lane beneath the hood when the car finally came to a stop. Reports of the accident are varied, one being that young Lane was racing a large car owned by a Milton resident at the time of the accident and going at a high rate of speed. This, however, was denied by Lane, who says he was not going at an excessive rate of speed and that the accident occurred when he turned out to let a car pass him, partially running off the road, and in his excitement put on the emergency brake without turning off the power, and the automobile skidded off from the road into the ditch and turned completely over. Neither Lane or Miss Wilson received more than bruises, but the car itself was badly wrecked, two wheels being off on the right side, the fender and radiator smashed in and the top crushed. The accident occurred shortly after half past four in the afternoon.

Up to this afternoon he suffered the pain of compound fractures, but at noon the fractures began to hurt.

WRONG IMPRESSION FROM NEWS ARTICLE

Police Officer Says Story Misconstrued By Readers and Wishes Public to Be Made Clear.

Night Captain Thomas Morrissey of the local police department has requested the Gazette to make a statement to make clear a news item which appeared Thursday evening, which according to the officer, numerous people misconstrued the meaning.

The article in question pertained to what Judge Maxfield told Homer Bowlin in court yesterday, when Bowlin appeared before him with a purple and greenish yellow optic, a badly cut lip and a wound on his forehead, and the judge said the marks as Bowlin claimed, Morrissey must have had some reason.

Officer Morrissey says that he did not hit Bowlin, and furthermore, in all his fourteen years of service on the department he has never beaten a prisoner. The police allege Bowlin to be a dope fiend, as he was in and out of Jackson and Hayes block physical offices throughout Wednesday afternoon.

ORFORDVILLE HOST TO ECONOMICS CLUB

First Meeting of Season Proves Most Enjoyable—Plan to Entertain Fresh Air Children.

Cordial hospitality and splendid dinner were included in the welcome extended to the Home Economics club of Orfordville. The occasion was the first meeting of the season, of the organization, and it was held in the pleasant new rooms of the I. O. O. F. lodge at Orfordville. About 125 persons enjoyed the bountiful and delicious dinner, served by the ladies of the Study club at noon. The proceeds from the dinner will be turned over to the library committee at Orfordville, which at the present time is trying to secure more books for the children and young people.

A business meeting of the Club of Home Economics was held at two o'clock. The president, Mrs. E. O. Kimbley, presided.

The secretary, Mrs. L. Amerpohl, was present and the usual business transacted. It was decided to invite from the Orfordville children to come from Chicago, to be taken care of by the club this summer, as could be accommodated with free board.

The finances of the club will not allow much extra expense, and there are so many calls on the public this year that it was not deemed wise to try to raise money for this purpose.

Those willing to take these little ones into their homes, were asked to communicate with Mrs. E. W. Fisher, Mrs. George Rummel, Mrs. Walter Helms, Mrs. James Zanis, Mrs. Louis Amerpohl, Mrs. H. H. Palmer or Miss Edna King. The report given by Miss King of the philanthropic department during last year showed that fifty children were entertained at Orfordville during July by the branch of service.

The meeting closed by the singing of "America."

The next meeting will be held at Milton July 12, and will have a picnic dinner; all members being expected to contribute to the same.

ANDREW JENSEN DIES AT EDGERTON HOME

SUCCEUMS AT FIVE O'CLOCK THIS MORNING FOLLOWING A BRIEF ILLNESS.

A PROMINENT CITIZEN

Starting With Small Capital, He Became a Successful Pioneer in Wisconsin Tobacco
Business.

Edgerton, June 22.—Andrew, Jensen, Edgerton's most prominent citizen, passed away at his home on Rollin street this morning shortly after five o'clock. He was born in Sande-naar, Norway, on June 4th, 1845. In 1849 he came to America and worked president and cashier of the Tobacco Exchange bank. He served the city six times as mayor and was one of the most popular men in this section of the state.

He was a most public spirited citizen, liberal in his donations to every public cause and an energetic booster of every enterprise calculated to promote the business interests of the city. Numerous are the private donations of which the public has heard nothing and no family in need ever appealed to him in vain.

Mr. Jensen was prominently identified with the Norwegian Lutheran church, having been for the past sixteen years a member of the church council of the synod. His last appearance as a representative of his congregation was at the convention of the three Norwegian Lutheran bodies which on June 9th organized the Norwegian Lutheran church of America at St. Paul, Minn., a cause which he ardently espoused. He has been a patron of the old Albion academy Albion, having been treasurer and director since its purchase sixteen years ago by the Norwegian Lutheran congregations of Dane, Rock and Columbia counties, his wise counsel having much to do with the success of that historic institution.

Mr. Jensen was married on New due to any form of disease, it is a generally known fact that by close application to his business, to which he always devoted himself most conscientiously, his physical strength had become depleted, and death came to him as a well deserved rest to one who is weary, with the day's work well done.

SMALL GROCERY STORE BIG MONOPOLY VICTIM

Chicago, June 22.—Unfair competition, according to a committee report to the liberty convention of the National Wholesale Grocers' association here, is driving small retailers from business in increasing numbers.

The alleged unfairness consists, according to the report, in manufacturers selling direct to consumers, direct to chains of stores, mail order houses and department stores at prices normally charged the wholesalers, and at which the manufacturer cannot profitably sell the individual small retailer.

The report, remarking there are 523,383 retail merchants, including 310,681 groceries in the United States, asserts:

"The tendency to eliminate the small man is therefore to aid monopoly, and under present conditions this tendency is becoming an accelerated movement which will sweep thousands of American retailers to eventual ruin."

The report states hitherto the government has acted only after strong monopolies have actually been established. It adds: "It now remains to be seen whether the government will permit a far more gigantic monopoly than any which have preceded it to be built up with ever increasing rapidity and to obtain control of first necessities of life."

The conditions complained of were presented to the federal trade commission some time ago.

TRENCH TALES.

A Scot bomber was recovering from a "bit o' shrapnel" picked up while "taking over a Bouche trench." "We had to take two lines of trenches," he said, "and the second was in the Hindenburg line. The machine has been in trench making. They are making an awful strong trench now. Common engineering, boards and timber, but thick overhead cover. The machine gun em-placements are in ferro-concrete and if the artillery hits them they just bend. They're made up of loops of iron woven together and filled round with concrete. It would take a very direct hit by a big shell to knock them to bits. The way we take them is with rifle grenades. We get round the sides of them and jam them with rifle grenades; that makes the machine-gunners keep their heads down and we get into them then. The German machine gun teams are pretty good soldiers; we most often find them dead at their posts. The quality of their infantry is not near so good—in fact I'm inclined to say they are getting lower day by day.

VALUABLE FARM LAND LEASED AT ROCKFORD FOR BIG ARMY CAMP

Rockford, Ill., June 22.—Patriotism found her war footing here June 19th when, in the most grimly enthusiastic conference in local history, 2,938 acres of lush farm land, comprising nineteen valuable estates, were relinquished to Uncle Sam to be converted into the cantonment for the Illinois division of the new national army.

In many instances owners sacrificed their land to the country after having coupled it since childhood, turning over family homes, annually increasing incomes and plans for the future, to aid the army plan. All arrangements were made by a chamber of commerce committee acting as intermediary between owners and government. Leases were drawn in each case for a nominal rental and will be signed soon.

Preliminary survey of the camp site, with its natural rifle and artillery range, barrack elevation and river boundaries, has been launched by engineers working under Major D. H.
Sawyer, quartermaster's department, Chicago. John W. Alvord and Charles B. Burdick, nationally known as hydraulic and sanitary engineers, are on the ground in person, locating the water supply, while C. B. Bennett, consulting architect, and a corps of assistants locate building sites. Army officers give assurance that the work will go forward rapidly and the army city will be established in September.
Rockford plans in co-operation with federal authorities include establishment of a ten mile moral zone about the cantonment, in which all vice will be rigidly eliminated. Plans for two additional hotels to welcome visitors, increased market facilities, electrifi-cation of the Chicago, Milwaukee and Gary steam line to the camp limits, new road building and general development are well under way. "The army first" has been adopted as the city's new slogan. Church and social organizations already have been formed and a wholesome entertainment program is taking shape to extend through the entire first year of camp life.

Contractors from nearly every city in Illinois have sent representatives to consult the local site committee as well as invading war department headquarters. Time has been given for just estimates on the work here and bids are expected to open next week. Local railroad division officials have arranged their schedules to take care of the increased traffic which will sweep into the city when construction work begins.

Already hundreds of visitors have visited the site and local officials promise that road improvements in all directions for the benefit of automobile tourists will be completed in July.

Life is a riddle because it is a fragment. We are only able to read one volume of a story that extends to many volumes. In a word, we know in part and prophesy in part.

WAKE UP, AMERICA!

We live too much in the life of today. We do not look to the future.
 Tomorrow means nothing to us beyond that which we can pluck for the day's enjoyment, beyond the work hours of today. When this European war began citizens of the United States stood aghast at the rapid mobilization of the German army and their forceful march across the Luxemburg and Belgian frontier on their road to Paris.

It had all been carefully figured out long years before, that march, and every detail had been considered, and every difficulty overcome, by careful judgment on the part of the German invaders. France was to be caught unaware. England would not dare raise its hand in protest, being unprepared, and once Paris was in the hands of Germany, France was on its knees and the German forces could menace England, together with the German fleet, while the real armies turned back to invade Russia, should that nation dare to even breathe a word of protest. It was all carefully planned.

However, in each plan there must be some possibility, and the one in this case Belgium. That little kingdom that had been created by the consent of England, France and Germany, and whose integrity was pledged by Germany. That kingdom lying across the channel from England, whose people were weavers and artisans, and whose thoughts were peaceful and whose homes were thrifty and happy. Not a fighting people, as they had been centuries before when they defied the Romans and later both the Spanish and the French kings, but a peace-loving nation. It was the one rift in the plans of Germany.

The invading host came on. They forged ahead. Treaties meant them nothing but scraps of paper.
 They planned to strike France before it was ready and cow England into submission. But in Belgium they found a checkmate. That Sunday morning when they invaded the quiet, peaceful valley of the Rhine and crossed the borderland they found a people who resisted their invasion, who repulsed their presence as best they could. The armed forces opposed them, the peasants fought them and they—the invading hosts—were checked, forced to stand and deliver, and in revenge they killed and slaughtered innocent non-combatants behind the actual fighting lines, while they battered down the forts of the pillaged Belgium and laid in ruins their villages and farms.

Meanwhile England and France rallied. France first, to mobilize and send its troops into the field to protect "la Belle France." Men were hurried from every line of industry into the service. Walters deserted their places, farmers their fields, shopkeepers their stores. All the automobiles and autos in Paris were utilized to convey this vast host to the battlefield. Even the under world of Paris furnished its quota. The regiment of "Apaches" who fought under a man who had been lost to the world for years, saved Paris and saved France.

England had rushed its few regular and territorial troops to the continent and the tide was turned, but not before Germany had bitten off a huge chunk of Belgium, had driven a wedge into France, had controlled Antwerp and part of the seacoast of unfortunate Belgium. Here the war has been waged since. Today we read of the defeat of this or that section of the German line and the next we learn the Germans have retaken this part or that part.

Russia began most gloriously, but practically hamstringed by the inefficiency of its arms and equipment, which had been carefully looked to by the German residents of Russia, who controlled munition plants, the army played a small part.

Austria quickly overran Serbia and Montenegro. Turkey and Bulgaria joined forces with the Central powers, Italy began its war on Austria, and Rumania finally became involved as an ally.

Switzerland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Spain, Greece and Holland kept aloof. Portugal, bound by treaty to England, declared war on the Central powers and their armed forces are now on the fighting line, and then the flame of war spread to this continent and the United States entered into the conflict as an ally of the allied powers, and opposed to the dogmatic government of imperialistic Germany.

Thus far we have declared war only on Germany, but practically we might as well be at war with Turkey and Austria as well for all intents and purposes.

Now the United States is preparing to undergo that period of intensive training that England has been compelled to require of its citizens in both the mother country and the colonial possessions. We have had a registration for draft, resulting in ten million young men being found of age for military service. We have recruited our navy and our regular army and our state militia to practically war strength. We have raised a loan of two billion dollars, to meet expenses, have loaned billions to our new allies for war purposes and are planning for a levy of almost a million of our young men for war purposes, men who are to be drilled and trained to fight across the water on a foreign soil in a war that is not of our own making, but must be carried to a successful issue for the sake of humanity and the honor and integrity of this nation and every other civilized country opposed to the willful acts of Germany.

What will the future bring? Previous to the actual declaration of war several thousand of our American citizens had enlisted in foreign armies and had served in the battle fronts, in the air, on sea and on land, to the credit and honor of their native land. Hundreds of others have enlisted for service in the ambulance service, and today an American general with his staff is camped on French soil waiting his army that is to come to raise the standard of the stars and stripes for the first time on a European battlefield.

Ever since Germany marched into Belgium on that Sunday morning, violating all rules of war and treaty obligations, the officials at Washington have known that some day this country must take part in the conflict, and yet today finds them unprepared.
 It is criminal negligence. There is no excuse that can be made for the truth. Months before congress was called into extraordinary session to declare war, the president and his advisors knew war was inevitable, and yet no plans were made to equip the army to be called into existence, no contracts let for uniforms, tents, blankets, guns or ammunition.

It took but a puff of powder to fire the mine that set Austria in motion, that gave Germany its opportunity, and yet the slow train, lighted years ago, failed to reach the mine of the understanding of the administration sufficiently to warn us to prepare.
 Men, both high and low have argued for preparedness for two years past.
 Parades have been held urging it as a precaution against war. Yet today finds us as unready to meet the emergency as we were when the first shot was fired by Austria.

When the proper time comes perhaps the United States will later some-more than furnish billions in money, and will show the world that under the Stars and Stripes, are living men who are just as loyal as any son of France or England, or any of the allied powers, to revenge the insults that have been heaped upon the honor and integrity of the nation.
 The administration is not wholly to blame for this condition. As long as congress continues to fight and bicker over details, as long as members seek the mote in their neighbors' eyes and fail to realize the beam remains in their own, we will have this condition.

Willful senators—in which Wisconsin must make its share of blame—aided in this serious handicap of affairs, by refusing to pass the needed appropriations in the closing hour of the last congress in March, while seeking to handicap the president and embarrass the whole nation. Fortunately their efforts amounted to nothing, yet the effect has shown itself in our present unprepared condition of both army and navy.

We may subscribe billions for the Liberty bonds, but it does not seem to hasten the manufacture of equipment for the army we have promised our allies. We may raise thousands of recruits for army and navy, but how are they to be clothed? How fed? How drilled? And how sent across the water to the scene of activities? These are problems of the future that are most immediate and imperative and should be solved at once.

PAY OR FIGHT.

"Pay or fight." "Do your bit." "The Red Cross Needs Your Aid." "An Appeal for Suffering Thousands." "Your Dollars Will Save Lives." And so you might continue. This Red Cross movement is one of the grandest institutions in the world. It knows no religion, no creed, no language, no color discrimination, no nationality.
 It is for the suffering members of humanity be they Christians or heathen. Be they the enemy or our own home boys.

They feed the widows and orphans, they care for the sick and wounded, and they alleviate the suffering of the dying. The Geneva Cross that signifies the Red Cross movement, is known the world over. It means that behind it are millions of men and women who are making actual sacrifices that it may be an accomplished fact. It stands for the best that is in this world for unselfish devotion to the great cause of humanity.

Taking Janesville as an example, its merchants, its citizens are importuned times without number for this cause or that cause. Scarcely a month passes that a committee does not approach the business and professional men for this cause or that.
 They are practically "milked dry."

Yet we must all give to this cause.
 We must all make some personal sacrifice if need be. It is the general cause of humanity. This hundred millions to be raised will feed the thousands of orphans this war has created. Will care for the fatherless children left in the countries where the wave of German atrocities have swung back from. It will bathe the wounds of the men who suffered in the bitter battles of the war, be they of the Central powers or the allies; it will help feed the hungry and ease the hours of the dying and with each personal sacrifice here we may know that all money raised will be expended to the best advantage.

The time is short to subscribe. Do not fall in this hour of national need.
 This nation does not understand we are at war. Let them read the advertisements in the Canadian papers for the ten thousand women workers needed in the fields to handle the crops. The men are at war and the women must play their part. We may come to this. This first hundred million may be all spent long before this war is over.

We have not entered this conflict for a few days, a month or so, but for eternity, if the cause of right and justice and regard for the rights of mankind are not observed. We have not declared war upon the German people, but upon the imperial government. Men become as beasts in the trenches after so many months of grueling warfare. We can not very well blame them for the abuses that have come. We must look to the root of all evil—the imperial government —and when that is eradicated we may hope for peace.

Meanwhile subscribe to the lists that are presented to you by men and women who are giving not only of their own money, but seeking to separate you from yours, in the cause of humanity. They sacrifice their time and energy in this thankless task. Make it easier for them by subscribing freely and adding the great work that our Saviour began during his life, when he went out to save souls and the lives of his fellow men.

The unnaturalized aliens in this country are so American that the home countries can't get hold of them for military service, and so foreign that we can't conscript them into our armies.

Under the new law many people won't pay their bills by check because it will take an internal revenue stamp, and they won't pay with money because it will take two minutes to stop in and attend to it.

One consolatory feature about the draft slackers is that they are not or-namenting the curbstones and street corners quite as conspicuously as formerly.

The principal athletic exercises at the summer resorts is sitting in the hammock and wishing the time would come for the newspapers to be delivered.

The girls that are wearing those conspicuous striped dresses are mad if people turn their heads to look at them, and they are mad if they don't.

Among the conscientious objectors is the boy who feels it his duty to celebrate July Fourth in spite of the paternal call to the hayfield.

Probably the new army camps in the South will attract almost as many tourists next winter as the league baseball training grounds.

A farm paper remarked that four small hogs will buy a Liberty bond.
 Most of the hogs around here declined to buy any at all.

European kings out of a job in the kinging line should remember that a wand and in the newspapers always brings results.

When the anarchists are put in jail, they agitate to get out, and when they are out, they agitate to get in again.

Kaiser William has called on God as his head errand boy to put back King Constantine on his throne.

Steam-The Coming Automobile

The little Spark Plug invented a few years ago made the present day automobile possible. Its advent revolutionized the gasoline motor, commonly used in automobiles today. Its application together with the invention and application of the self-starter although complicated, has made the gasoline motor as near a perfected power for the automobile, as it is possible with gasoline as its motive power. Steam has long been recognized as an ideal power. It remained for Abner Doble, of Detroit, to perfect this power for the automobile use, which he has accomplished by the aid of the little Spark Plug. However, instead of using the Spark Plug for every power impulse, as with the gasoline engine, he only uses it once in igniting the kerosene for starting his steam plant. This makes starting more quickly than with the gasoline car, especially in cold weather. Thus it will be seen, that the Spark Plug is revolutionizing the steam engine, as it did the gasoline engine. The RITTER AUTOMOBILE COMPANY, of Madison, have been appointed Factory Distributors for the Doble Steam Car, for the Southwest part of Wisconsin. Advertise.

CAPTURE FRED HARTIN IN NEW YORK STATE

Twenty dollar bills, which Hartin missed, were found on the body.
For three days he remained at Beloit telling friends he had decided to reform. By accident it was learned that Krawson had just been released from Waupun. The prison chaplain had seen Hartin meet him and they had been seen at Beloit. As officers started from the Beloit station to arrest him he was feeling from the home of a relative. Half an hour too late the relative had informed the police of his suspicions that his kin was the man.
Hartin went west to California. He joined the regular army in Oklahoma and later deserted. Government circulars bearing his description arriving here, were immediately recognized by Evansville and Beloit police and the pursuit was continued with renewed vigor.

Your Life Insurance. A Protection or a Prize?

Frequently it is a matter of chance whether insurance money is a protection to one's family or a prize for some unscrupulous promoter.
Life insurance is a protection only when those who receive the money invest it wisely. In many instances widows who receive proceeds from life insurance are helpless. They may have no knowledge concerning investments.
This company, acting as trustees to receive the proceeds of your insurance, will safeguard and protect the interests of those dependent upon you.

WESTERN SHEEPMEN URGED TO FEEDING ON UP-STATE TRACTS

By G. G. Packer, Director of Immigration, Wisconsin Department of Agriculture.

Madison, Wis., June 22.—Western sheepmen are being urged by the Wisconsin department of agriculture to bring their sheep to northern Wisconsin for feeding, where large sections of grazing lands are lying idle. Sections which are particularly good for sheep raising are located near Westboro, Iron River and Holcomb. There are also large sections of good grazing land in Douglas, Ashland and Washburn counties.

The immigration division of the agricultural department has taken steps toward increasing stock feeding by hiring upon a combination of field hands and sheep. At present there are 1,000,000 dairy cows in Wisconsin. This does not include cattle being raised for beef in the southeastern counties. More than 500,000 sheep are being raised in this state.

Or. Curtis, dean of agriculture, Iowa state college, sometime ago declared: "The two great products of the central west are corn and grass, and the greater value of these is in the grass and the forage crops of our farms and our farming states are of greater value, take it one year with another on an average than any other single crop we produce."

A practical farmer will readily accept the statement that a well watered country in which Timothy, Kentucky blue grass and red and white clover flourish is a natural pasture region—and such is northern Wisconsin.

Other where the fires have burned out the wood lot and the sun shines in so freely that grass seed can be sown which will spring up without difficulty and make a pasture among the stumps. Not only pasture but good meadows are established in like manner.

Perhaps there was some justification for the statement made recently that a given quantity of grain will support five times as many people as will the meat or milk made from it. For the food shortage is serious, but it is that under the campaign to things to eat most of our people understand the importance of fats, animal fats, without which cereals even the most nutritious and palatable are wholly unsatisfactory. A balanced preparedness is being accomplished all along the line, an increase of foodstuffs without the serious disturbance of any line of production.

PETEY DINK—THEY'LL NEED A ROPE ON SOME.

EACH TEAM NEEDS SUPPORTING UNIT

A baseball team without at least one star pitcher would be an absolute joke as a champion of one of the two major leagues. Ranging back over history discloses the fact that every one of the many clubs which have risen to heights and retrograded is featured by at least one hurler of star proportions. Since the American league came into being this fact has been even more pronounced.

Inspect the record of the Chicago White Sox of 1906, one of the most remarkable world's championship feats in the game's annals. Ed Walsh was just about the entire exhibition in those days, with the able assistance of Dr. White.

The obstreperous Braves present an identical case, with forgotten Bill James the mainstay of their endeavors.

Connie Mack had his Jack Coombs, his Eddie Plank and his Chief Bender. Christy Mathewson added grace and impetus to the Giants' payroll. Joe Wood drew much money, both in the payroll and at the gate, while he was doing championship duty for the Red Sox. Wild Bill Donovan, Ed Reulbach, Mortimer Brown, Phillip Hulse Adams, Grover Alexander, Jeff Pfeiffer, all have had their thing in the stars who have bestowed clubs almost individually into a world's series cut.

The one-man feature rests with nearly every club. They all have some man around whom defense or offense is centered.

The Chicago White Sox would be a sorry outfit without Eddie Collins. Charles Horan adds fire to the Giant attack and defense. Ty Cobb is the main part of the Detroit mechanism. George Sisler draws pay for being two-thirds of the Browns. Rogers Hornsby is about the speediest thing in the game's annals. Larry Doyle has made the Cubs almost entirely over. The loss of John Evers as a regular has had a bad effect this year on the Braves. Jake Daubert mainly controls the destinies of the Dodgers. Walter Johnson is a team and then some in Washington. Grover Alexander performs the same thing in Philadelphia, as does Wally Pipp in the Yankees' lives. Teddie Groh and Hal Chase are splitting the difference in Cincinnati. Jack Barry is bad news, while to Boston, and Tris Speaker a bit more than a circus attraction for the Indians.

Some weeks ago, or rather when the Browns were in Cleveland early in the season and Pitcher Sothern had come through with his third victory over the Indians, Manager Felt made the remark that he doubted if Sothern would be as successful against the other teams in the league.

MORRIS MILLER

Sport Snap Shots. It may be of interest to the fans to know that Josh Devore, former Giant fielder and known as the world's series charm, has retired from baseball and is running a milk route at his home town, Chillicothe, O. Josh was a great little character. At one time it looked as if he would develop into one of the game's real star players. His best year was 1911, when he got his first world's series money.

Josh played on two Giant pennant winners and made a catch in the 1912 world's series which put thousands of dollars into New York an instant. But for a catch by Devore in the third game Boston would have won the series in four games, one of them being a tie. As it was the series stretched into eight games, and after the fourth game all goes to the clubs.

Work on the new racetrack to be erected at Hot Springs, Ark., will be started in July, according to officials of the Essex Park Jockey club. The old buildings were destroyed by fire soon after the opening of the track last March. The new grand stand will be constructed of cement and reinforced steel. The officials plan to make the course one of the most attractive in the country.

Devore, Ames, and Groh were sent to Cincinnati in the Fromme deal in 1912, but after being released to Philadelphia Devore landed with the Boston Braves in time to get $4,000 slice which went to the individual Braves for beating the Athletics.

"He won't be the sensation lots of persons think," said the Cleveland manager. "He'll take a lot of beatings." Felt's prediction has been verified, as Sothern has been a consistent loser since he triumphed over the Indians.

The report that Robert Simpson of the University of Missouri, world's champion hurdler, might enter the American ambulance corps for service in France is declared to be unfounded. Simpson signed for farm advisory work. His professors refused his release when he later applied to enter the ambulance corps, saying that he would be of no service in the agricultural department. He has been awarded the scholarship trophy, a new university prize this year.

Elmer Q. Oliphant will captain the 1918 West Point football eleven. In addition to being a clever half back on the squad, he is catcher on the basketball team, and can throw the hammer and put the shot in splendid form.

Bill Byron is a good umpire, one of the best in the business. At times he also has put a lot of color into ordinary drab games, but this season his lordship has been overdone. In his act Byron a gasfitter by trade, enjoys his work as an umpire, which is thoroughly proper. But several times this season he has acted like a younger who tries to show off before a big crowd. His stuff, cocking his fingers under the noses of players, and his stern rebukes and warnings, are too theatrical. For an umpire he makes himself too conspicuous.

Smoky Joe Wood, famous as a member of the Boston Americans, for whose contract Cleveland is reported to have paid $15,000, is worried over the soreness in his pitching arm. The trouble in the elbow and shoulder has refused to yield to treatment.

Lee Pohl, manager of Cleveland, does not play Smoky Wood again until the sweltering days arrive. Warm weather, Pohl believes, will effect a cure for Wood's trouble.

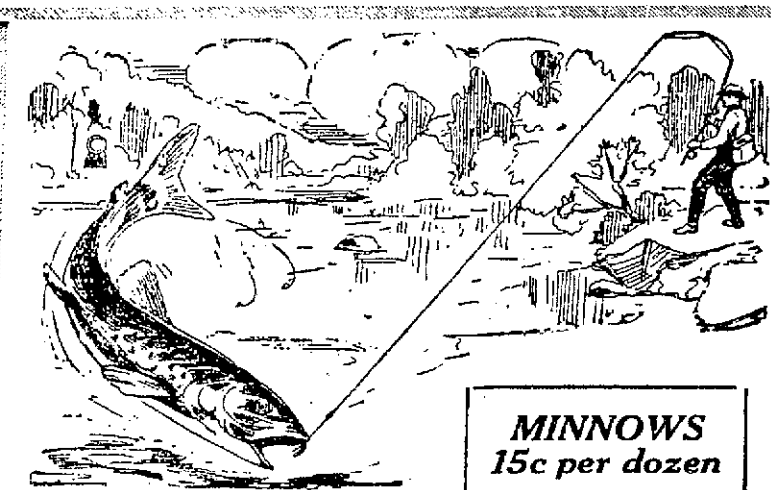

"I will pitch any time Pohl says the word," Wood said, "but it would be suicide for me to go against a club until I know my arm can stand the strain. I am a bit discouraged, but don't believe that I am through as a pitcher. Time only will tell and I must not try to force matters."

STRONG CARD TEAM PLANNING TO BEAT WATERTOWN SUNDAY

Cole's Crew Ready to Take Measure of Goslings.—Feine, Former Sox, To Be on Our Firing Line Again.

The first appearance here this season of the Central State league leaders comes Sunday, when the speedy Goslings of Watertown clash with the revamped and jubilant Cards at the Park association diamond.

The Watertown management has forwarded the information that Anson and Eddie Hughes will be on the firing line. Manager Willis Cole announces Feine, former White Sox hurler, and the lad who brought the Cards' heads above water by the defeat of Jefferson last Sunday, and "Heifer" Delaney to perform for the home team. Incidentally President "Bill" Langdon is chanting, "We're gonna beat 'em" again this week as he did for several days previous to the Jefferson game.

Cole will have practically the same team in the field as that which raised havoc with the sausage men. "Kitty" Knight of the Tri-County league and former Pacific coast circuit player, he of heaviness with the willow, will again be on first coodman to hold down second and Kerman will go his share at third. Kingston will be seen at short. Out in the gardens there will be Cole, Meyer and Ebert, the latter the lad who made the sensation by beating everything around the C. S. league. Should Feine have an off day Knight can pitch.

Indications are that it is going to be a "hummer" Sunday. The Cards are expected to be a bit hot but a single game this year. The Cards are out to make it two in the L column for Watertown.

LONE SOLDIER BALKS BIG COUNTER-ATTACK

Paris, June 22.—Emile Alexandre Bigorne, machine gun operator, has just been awarded the Legion of Honor, the highest military decoration France can give to an ordinary soldier. Bigorne's reputation for repulsing singlehanded a German counter attack.

Not less than 800 Germans were killed, wounded or put to flight. Bigorne's exploit demonstrates to some extent the role the machine gun has come to play in the present war where it is without question the most formidable weapon now known. Its death dealing effects far exceed those of heavy artillery and are probably only approached by the "soixante-quinze" guns of the French.

Following one of the French advances in the early part of the present offensive Bigorne found himself holding down a German trench in company with a dozen other machine gun men. The Germans had kept them isolated all night with a barrage fire and early in the morning had shown indications of preparing a counter attack.

With the gradual increase of the morning light the Germans fired more accurately, with the result that one by one Bigorne's comrades were killed. Orders had been given to hold the trench at all costs. When Bigorne found himself finally the sole survivor with a heavy German counter attack preparing a few dozen rods in front of him he gathered together the machine gun belts of his dead comrades. Although he was out of ammunition he was in possession of about 1,000 cartridges.

Adjusting his gun and placing the cartridge belts near where he would be able to feed them in himself, he waited until the first Germans were close in before opening his deadly fire. The Germans began falling. First one by one. Then as they crowded to the attack, by fives, by twenties and fifties. Bigorne never wasted a shot. Yet, as the Germans fell down by the score, still others leaped up in their places.

In the end Bigorne found himself with a last cartridge belt and a whole column of Germans still swarming to the assault. He fed the belt in and then took a last, long sweep across the entire front of the approaching Germans. It was his last cartridge, but it proved sufficient, for under his deadly aim the entire column broke and dashed back to its trench.

For two hours Bigorne continued in his position, waiting to see what the Germans would do. Finally, he was relieved before another attack was launched, and on being conducted to the rear he was greeted by his general who announced that he was to be remembered for the Legion of Honor.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Janesville Daily Gazette, June 22, 1877.—One of the workmen on the institution for the education of the blind was hurt on the head today by a bucket of mortar falling upon him. He received a scalp wound of considerable severity, though we are glad to say it is not dangerous.

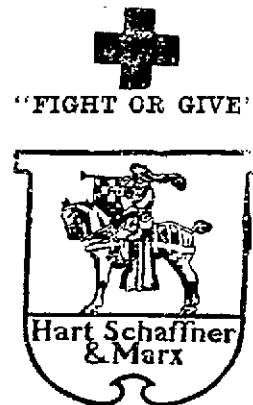

The unwelcome news comes from Brussels, Belgium, that J. J. White, formerly of this city, who went to Europe two years ago for his health, is rapidly falling, and it is feared that he cannot long survive.

Frank M., son of J. M. Bostwick of this city, graduated on Wednesday at the United States naval academy, at Annapolis, Md. Frank shows a good record, standing No. 16 in a class of 45. He will be home in a few days on leave of absence.

Last evening a remarkably narrow escape from severe injuries, if not from a tragic death, took place on East Milwaukee street. Hattie, daughter of H. A. Smith, was drawing her little brother, Harry, in a carriage, and when in front of her father's shoe store, put the carriage, as she supposed, in a position from which it could not move, and left it for only a few moments. At once little Harry's hands were at the wheels and in almost an instant he had the carriage out of position, when it ran backwards off the sidewalk, and not stopping until it ran under the heels of a horse hitched to a post in front of the store. This frightened the horse, and he began to kick. In this critical condition, when the life of a child depended upon action, almost as quick as thought, with Armington springing to the horse's heels, and in an instant extracted little Harry from the jaws of death.

When we plant a tree we are doing what we can to make our planet a more wholesome and happier dwelling place for those who come after us, if not for ourselves.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Florsheim SHOE

of Florsheims will prove to you from first to last day's wear that value is not to be judged by what you pay but what you get—will convince you positively that the superior materials, fine workmanship and the individual style of The Florsheim Shoe give greater value for every dollar invested. "How cheap" is false economy. Buying ordinary shoes under the impression that you are making a saving means that you are spending more and getting less.

"Replies" vs. "Results"

Anybody can write a Classified Ad that will bring replies or inquiries. But if you're a classified ad user you know from experience that there is a big difference between "replies" and "results" in classified advertising. People are learning to use the Classified Ad columns to get results, not replies.

It doesn't pay you to take time to look up a man who answered your ad and to explain your proposition to him in detail only to find that he won't consider it at all because of some one feature. You will quickly see that if you had fully described the proposition in your Classified Ad only those who are pleased with all the features would have replies.

Which is cheaper: To spend a few cents extra describing your proposition fully, or to run around town hunting up people who only answered your ad because they thought it might be about something else?
